Managed Learning Services

Through our Managed Learning Services (MLS), you have a team of experts dedicated to ensuring that your business strategies and processes are aligned with and supported by comprehensive Adayana learning solutions. With our vertical focus, our professionals understand your environment and take the time to learn about your organization, its culture, and most importantly – its needs. Through long-term management of your unique employee, partner, and customer learning solutions, our collaborative and comprehensive services help support a variety of organizational goals and requirements:

- Do you need to reduce costs while making your team more productive?
- Are you looking to increase revenue by better aligning your learning and development activities with your business strategy?
- Do you need to measure progress against goals and regulations more accurately?

Adayana brings proven processes and tools to address these and other needs, while managing the complete design, delivery, and oversight of learning solutions. You can rely on Adayana for all aspects of enterprise-wide learning, including the following:

- LMS & Content Hosting
- Podcasting & Web Collaboration
- Content & Curriculum Development
- Delivery & Learning Technology
- Learning Strategy
- Assessment & Reporting
- Administration & Integration

Our customizable MLS Service Packages focus on specific business and operational requirements and are modified to fit your unique requirements.
